

SKILL2E BENEFITS:

- * Additional competence gain of students can be made visible
- * Improve preparation of students for the global labour market (global and intercultural cooperation is becoming a critical and important factor)
- * Additional support and supervision of students during placement through self-reflection and cultural mentors in the enterprises

Bridging the intercultural competence gap between the students, universities and the enterprises.

 How can the system of higher education better equip graduates with the required skills in the present and future multicultural and multidisciplinary workplaces?
 Where do we start to improve the dialogue between universities and enterprises for a mutual transfer of knowledge in the context of intercultural competence?

SELECTED MILESTONES

- * Assessment Instrument Selection Report which evaluates the relevance of IDI as the appropriate assessment tool for SKILL2E.
- * Pre-placement concept which drafts the theoretical implications of pre-departure training to the SKILL2E concept as well as the suitable pedagogical approach.
- * Cultural mentor concept which drafts the theoretical bases of the need for cultural mentoring and its process.
- * Stakeholder involvement plan which provides suggestions and mechanisms how to involve stakeholders particularly those at policy-making level.

SKILL2E is an award-winning project!

Congratulations to the SKILL2E team for winning the 2011 Award for Science and Research given by the Curatorium for Culture Fund of Salzburg.

Model of Best-Practice!

The SKILL2E concept has been presented as a model of best-practice in university-enterprise cooperation by many organisations such as the Austrian National Agency for Lifelong Learning Programme, the German Academic Exchange Service, New Skills Network and INENTER.

Positive resonance!

The SKILL2E innovations have also been presented at various regional and international conferences and workshops such as at the NAFSA, ESSIE, EDEN, EAIE and ISCAP II. Papers and presentations can be found at www.skill2e.net.ms
